

GREEN FUSION:

Some thoughts about nano-poetry

Noel : Is there such a thing as nano-poetry?

Tara : (shrugging her shoulders) Why not?
Isn't unseen poetry in every molecule?

Orapan : (laughing) It might seem like non-sense, yet it strangely it makes sense. Perhaps we've been reading too much Ranjan Kumar Baral, Guntaj Arora, or Whitman?

Tara : (Perhaps. Yet doesn't nano-bit of poetry have some value?
